

Private & Confidential.

10th July, 1980

Immigration.

The following Conservative Members of Parliament came to see the Prime Minister and the Home Secretary on Tuesday, 8th July, in order to recommend firmer action on implementing our Manifesto commitment on Immigration:-

- Tony Marlow -
- John Browne -
- Michael Brown -
- Ivor Stanbrook -
- John Carlisle -
- Nicholas Budgen -
- Paul Marland -
- Richard Alexander -
- Warren Hawksley -
- Nicholas Bonsor -
- Nicholas Winterton -

The meeting was a perfectly friendly and courteous one, and the Prime Minister and the Home Secretary listened sympathetically to what they had to say.

Ian Gow

The Rt. Hon. Michael Jopling, M.P.