

AITKEN, A.P.

10 DOWNING STREET

10th February, 1981

The Prime Minister enjoyed last evening enormously. She has written to your Mother, and to Dr. Norman, who I hope will live forever.

It was very kind of you to have included me last evening, although I have been rebuked by the Prime Minister because you would not allow us to pay.

I enclose 40 copies of the longer version of Dr. Norman's talk.

Again, very many thanks.

PS Do let us dine together, soon, as we used to in the old days.
