

HORDERN, P.P.

17th February, 1981

Thank you so much for your letter of 16th February.

I share your view entirely; that does not matter; however, what does matter, is that your view is also shared by others.

Let us please have a word about these matters.

IAN GOW

Peter Hordern, Esq. M.P.
House of Commons

From: PETER

HURDNER

16.2.81,
/

My dear Tom,

I hope Kozlovsky's
piece on the front page
of the P.T. is inaccurate.

It is covered quite well on
p. 10, in the Lombard column,
as it happens.

But I must tell you how disastrous it would be for us all, not just in the Party, but in the country,
if the attack on inflation
were to be brought to a halt in exchange for an exchange-rate policy; which is simply another way of describing the ~~primary~~

of more history.

I know you will not mind my telling you
my thoughts.

Yours ever
Ami;