

30th March, 1981

University College, Buckingham

Thank you so much for your letter of 26th March, together with its enclosures.

I will have a word with the Prime Minister, and will then write to you again.

I know that she will be anxious to help, if she possibly can.

I enclose an extract from the Prime Minister's speech in Cardiff on Saturday, which drew heavily on the text which you had so kindly supplied.

HARRIS

11th March, 1981

Thank you so much for your letter of 5th March.

The draft speech which you sent to me is a brilliant analysis of the causes of inflation and unemployment - and of the cure for these twin evils.

I shall certainly use your draft. I really am enormously grateful.

Dear Margaret

We increasingly hear complaints from your best advisors that you have not explained your central strategy sufficiently clearly.

Can you find a suitably thoughtful audience in the near future, to deliver a 30-minute speech along the lines of the enclosed draft?

World progresses on the unemployment figures.

Yours as ever

Ralph
