21st June 1982

Thank you so much for your letter of 18th June, with which you enclosed a very nice letter which you had received from your former Commanding Officer.

This I have shown to the Prime Minister.

I return Colonel Price' letter. I have sent him a note today.

Francis Pym has sent on to me your very kind letter to him dated 15th June.

I have shown your letter to the Prime Minister. Your message of support and congratulations has been of real encouragement to her.

I smiled when I read the PS to your letter.

I have a number of friends in the 9th/12th. I was a 15th Hussar.

With best wishes.

Dear Francis

I am so proud of you all.

Well done.

The whole Falkland operation must be the most efficient effort that Britain has ever laid on in her long History. And all 8000 miles away.

In the Argenta Gap in Italy in 1945 I thought you had a pretty good Commanding Officer! But my word you have got a far better, safer, safer one now.

Please give her my love,
admiration & congratulations.

I hope she appreciates her young Adjutant as much as I used to!

Yours ever

Jack.

P.S. Get your rotten old
Foreign Office to be 'Pro-Brit' once again. A bit of patriotism is no bad thing
