I write to ask whether it would be convenient for you and for Jim Molyneaux to come to see Cecil Parkinson and me at my room at the House at 5.15 p.m. on Thursday, 3rd March?

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

1st March 1983

This is just a line to confirm that 5.15 p.m. at my room at the House on Thursday 3rd March is convenient for our two visitors.

I will look forward to seeing you then.

Who knows, we might be able to take one small step towards our joint purpose of bringing both Parties into communion once again.

Please mention this meeting to no-one.
