Dear Mr. Margolis,

I am afraid I did not have a chance yesterday to thank you personally for returning my scarf. I am extremely grateful as it is one of my favourites. I realised when I returned to the Bus at the NEC that I had lost it and feared I would never see it again.

With renewed thanks.

*Yours sincerely
Margaret Thatcher*

Dear Mrs Thatcher,

I found this on the floor
at the NEC this afternoon;
having considered rattling it for the National Union of Journalists widows' and orphans' fund, conscience gained the better
of me!

Yours
Jonathan Margolis
