

Prime Minister²

QUEEN ANNE'S GATE
LONDON SW1H 9AT

June 13.

Dear Margaret,

You will be almost weary of congratulations, but I wd - just like to add my own. The journalists are hot on the trail of arguments about advertisements and agents, but this seems beside the point. Just about the most powerful argument in politics is "Time for a Change" and you defeated it, or rather captured it for your own purpose. I could feel that happening in dozens and dozens of conversations in Market Square and on doorknobs

in the rain, and it is an amazing achievement.

Thank you for asking me to continue on this hot paper. I do so with great pleasure — and refreshed!
