PRIME MINISTER'S
PERSONAL MESSAGE
SERIAL No. T3A183

London, 10th January 1983

Dear Mr. Butler,

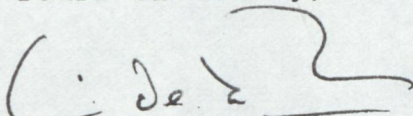

I have received the following message from Don Felipe Gonzalez, President of the Government, for Mrs Margaret Thatcher:

"I am extremely grateful for the greetings you have sent me through the British Ambassador in Madrid, and I would ask you to extend this appreciation to the remaining members of your Government.

I for my part send you my best wishes for 1983, and look forward to the opportunity of renewing our personal contacts."

I shall be most grateful if you will kindly convey this message to the Prime Minister.

Yours sincerely,

LUIS DE LA TORRE
Minister Counsellor
Chargé d'Affaires, a.i.

F.E.R. Butler Esq.,
Principal Private Secretary to the
Prime Minister,
10 Downing Street,
