BRITISH EMBASSY,

LISBON.

26 March 1986

Dear Charles

It's nice to be in touch again and I'll hope to see you in May at some point in the 'Portugal 600' celebration.

I'm sorry if there's a feeling around Whitehall that my clients are being unreasonable in some of their expectations!

I'm so glad it's already been possible to fix up a call on the Prime Minister for Cavaco Silva
- and I do hope something can be contrived also to allow her to talk with Soares (her host in Lisbon in 1984)
- possibly in a corner at Windsor?

Yours ever

Michael
