THE PRIME MINISTER

Dear Signor Fanfani,

I was delighted to receive the beautiful book of your paintings - "Dalla Pittura al Pittore". It richly confirms your reputation as a talented painter, particularly in the boldness of line and colour. It is a particularly nice touch that the photograph taken by your wife in Peking features as the frontispiece. Thank you very much for this generous gift. It will remind me of a long friendship and in particular of a very successful Economic Summit in Venice.

Yours sincerely

Raymond Delisle

Onorevole Amintore Fanfani.
