

PRIME MINISTER

You may like to be aware that Cranley Onslow made a statement at the beginning of the 1922 last night, at John Moore's request.

The gist of this was that Members who wished to contribute to the debate on the NHS should send their letters to John at the House of Commons, rather than the DHSS, because in that way he would be more likely to see them himself.

ASH

ARCHIE HAMILTON

12.2.88

mt