THE PRIME MINISTER

14th February 1988

I know there is a dinner party to mark Keith's 70th birthday. Please send love and congratulations.

Our country owes so much to Keith.
It was he, who after defeat in 1974, went right back (or was it forward?) to first principles and so laid the foundation for the renaissance we now enjoy. Integrity, selflessness, dedication and kindness - all these and many more remarkable qualities make up Keith. It is indeed an occasion for celebration. But please tell Keith there is still a lot more to do!
