

Mr. Beaupark

Ref: Chow Business Reception
18 April.

Ref: Proposed List attached

1. Whilst I accept, of course that not everyone who comes to our Receptions are necessarily on "our" side I find it both unpleasant and embarrassing to entertain those who publicly insult the P.M. This list therefore needs some careful checking in this regard.

2. This party is no way important enough for Sir Jehudi. Mervin and Diana; they should be included in a suitable Chequers lunch.

3. I have ticked ✓ ^{those} who I would personally like to see included and have shown doubt ? of those who, I believe, do not help.

4. Those on the Scottish Office list should be referred via Archie Hamilton to Lord Gould - we tend to make mistakes in re Scotland and support our enemies and forget our friends

5. It is a wonderful list of Civil War Pensioners. I just wonder whether we can "compete" with them all.

Show Business Reception
Monday, 18 April

I attach the list of suggestions for the Show Business Reception on 18 April. The numbers are a possible 229 without spouses.

The list includes suggestions from Sir Basil Feldman, the Offices of the Minister for the Arts, Scottish Office and Sport, and from within No. 10. John Whittingdale has seen this list. We have not included anyone who has been to No. 10 within the last year or came to the last Arts Reception.

On page 8 are some Civil List Pensioners. Would the Prime Minister wish to include some of these?

We shall include a selection of Ministers and Members of Parliament later.

If you agree, could the list please go into the Prime Minister's weekend box for approval.
