Dear Tim,

I should just like to thank you and everyone else involved in organising such a successful conference last week. It all went extremely smoothly and the press coverage was excellent. I hope that it may represent a turning point in the fortunes of our Party in Scotland and I was certainly most impressed by the obvious enthusiasm of all those attending. Our task now is to turn that into hard work in the constituencies.

Denis and I very much enjoyed our day spent in Glasgow. I thought the Garden Festival was magnificent and we were lucky enough to see a most exciting final at Hampden Park. I know you played an important part in arranging these visits and I appreciate all that you did.

With warm good wishes.

Dear Mr. Wilson,

I just wanted to write and thank you for your kind hospitality at the Station Hotel when I was in Perth last weekend. I so enjoyed being back in Perth and greatly appreciated everything you and your staff did to make my stay so comfortable. I was only sorry we had to rush away on Saturday morning but as you know I had a number of engagements in Glasgow.

Thank you also for the two whisky glasses. They are beautiful and will serve as a lovely reminder of a happy visit.

Denis joins me in sending you and your staff our best wishes.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Thatcher

Dear Bruce,

I should just like to thank you very much for the contribution you made towards my speech to the Scottish Party Conference last weekend. You will have seen from the coverage that the speech received that I used a large part of what you sent in and I am most grateful to you for your help.

Yours

Jean Gerry,

I should just like to thank you very much for the contribution you made towards my speech to the Scottish Party conference last weekend. You will have seen from the speech that I used a large part of what you sent in and I am most grateful to you for your help.

I would also like to thank you for your additional thoughts for my forthcoming speech to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. These are most useful.

*Yours
Gerry Malone*
