Dear Mr. Rynkowski,

Thank you very much for accompanying me on my visit to the great Westerplatte monument and during my visit to the Old Town of Gdansk. Both visits had particular historical associations for a British Prime Minister, and both also brought to life for me the indomitable spirit of Poland's people. Your gracious words at the ceremony at the City Hall were particularly kind and I very much appreciated them, as also your gifts which will remind me of a very happy visit.

With best wishes to you and to all the citizens of Gdansk,

Yours sincerely

Margaret Thatcher

Dear Professor Gieysztor,

Thank you very much for showing me round the Royal Castle during my visit to Warsaw. One marvels at the work which has gone into restoring the building to its former glory and feels the pride of the magnificent achievement it represents. It was a great privilege to see it and I am most grateful to you for explaining everything so fully.

May I thank you also for the book about the castle, which will always remind me of my visit.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Thatcher

Mr. J. Nowak.

Thank you very much for escorting me round the Hale Mirowska market. It was a very cheerful and colourful visit, although it rather disrupted normal activity!

I am most grateful for your help.
