

PRIME MINISTER

THE GULF

The Foreign Secretary is concerned that we are not getting enough high level Ministerial visits to the Gulf States and that this could affect our commercial interests. He would like to raise the matter in Cabinet under Foreign Affairs tomorrow and urge more colleagues to make such visits. Clearly he would hope that you would then come in and very strongly endorse his remarks.

---

Can I give him the go ahead on this please?

C.D.P.

mt

C. D. POWELL

7 February 1990

c:\foreign\gulf (kk)