REVIEWED DRNKTHE SECURITY COUNCIL

Recalling its resolutions 476 (1980) and 478 (1980), Reaffirming that a just and lasting solution to the Arab-Israeli conflict must be based on its resolutions 242 (1967) and 338 (1973) through an active negotiating process which takes into account the right to security for all States in the region, including Israel, as well as the legitimate political rights of the Palestinian people,

Reaffirming further that the Fourth Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, is applicable to all the territories occupied by Israel since 1967,

Taking into consideration the statement of the Secretary-General relative to the purpose of the mission he is sending to the region and conveyed to the Council by the President on 12 October 1990:

1. Expressing alarm at the violence which took place on 8 October at the Al Aqsa Al Sharif and other Holy Places of Jerusalem resulting in over twenty Palestinian deaths and to the injury of more than one hundred and fifty people, including Palestinian civilians and innocent worshippers,

2. Condemn especially the acts of violence committed by the Israeli security forces resulting in injuries and loss of human life,
3. Call upon Israel, the occupying power, to abide scrupulously by its legal obligations and responsibilities under the Fourth Geneva Convention,
4. Request, in connection with the decision of the Secretary-General to send a mission to the region, which the Council welcomes, that he submit a report to it before the end of October 1990 containing his conclusions and that he use as appropriate all of the resources of the United Nations in the region in carrying out the mission.

DRAFT STATEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

In the informal consultations of members of the Council which led up to the adoption of this resolution, the Secretary-General explained that the purpose of the mission which he would be sending to the region would be to look into the circumstances surrounding the recent tragic events in Jerusalem and other similar developments in the occupied territories, and to submit by 26 October a report and recommendations to the Council on ways and means for ensuring the safety and protection of the Palestinian and civilians under Israeli occupation. He recalled, however, that under the Fourth Geneva Convention, the principal responsibility for insuring the protection of the Palestinians rested with the occupying power, namely Israel.
