

Not Found
cc Mr. Whitmore
Mr. Lankester ✓

PRIME MINISTER

British Steel

Mr. Wyatt telephoned to say that Bill Sirs had told him that the various negotiating bodies of all unions concerned have decided to come together to make a common approach to British Steel. They are having meetings about it today and will shortly be in touch with BSC.

British Steel feel there is a little bit of co-operation from the blastfurnacemen.

CAROLINE STEPHENS

5 March 1980