From the Private Secretary

MR. LAVELLE
CABINET OFFICE

MADRID EUROPEAN COUNCIL

The Prime Minister has asked for the fullest possible details of all remaining restrictions on free movement of capital and a free market in financial services in the European Community - both overt and hidden - to draw upon as necessary in the debate on EMU at the European Council in Madrid. I would be grateful if, with the help of Treasury and Department of Trade and Industry, you could compile a full list of these and let me have it by Friday 23 June.

I am copying this minute to Alex Allan (HM Treasury) and Neil Thornton (Department of Trade and Industry).
