Mr. Mandela

I have had a word with the Prime Minister about Mr. Mandela's visit. She has decided she would like to err if anything on the side of generosity and invite him to a talk followed by a working lunch. She would envisage this taking place on Wednesday 4 July, with the talk at 1200 hours and lunch at 1300. She would much prefer participation to be very restricted indeed: ideally Mr. Mandela plus one.

I should be grateful if this proposal could now be put to Mr. Mandela.
