Dear Guest

When I launched Action for Cities on 7 March I said that its aim was to help our cities prosper through enterprise and civil pride. The measures needed to achieve this cannot be imposed. Success depends upon a partnership of Government with commerce and industry.

Much has already been achieved and the Government is now stepping up momentum to make inner city decay a thing of the past. There are many opportunities for companies, large and small, to become involved and you will learn at this Working Breakfast about the opportunities and the benefits which can result from this important work.

I attach a draft message from the Prime Minister which it is proposed should be included in the pack which delegates will be given at the end of the forthcoming inner city breakfast seminars. Please would you advise whether this is acceptable.

Yours
