

PRIME MINISTER

VISIT TO WASHINGTON

The Americans are giving thought to the guest list for President Reagan's dinner for you on 16 November, for which guests will be drawn from many fields: political, military, business, media, the arts, show business. They wondered whether you had any particular suggestions to make.

The following names occur to me:

- ✓ Weinberger
- ✓ Kissinger
- ✓ Volcker
- Haig
- ✓ Greenspan
- ✓ General Rogers
- ✓ Annenbergs
- ✓ Ann Armstrong
- ✓ Senator Tower
- Senator Mathies
- Senator Nunn
- Senator Dole
- ✓ Sir Gordon White
- Mr. Buckley
- ~~Alistair Cooke~~
- ✓ Mark and Diane
- Charles Weston

Perhaps we can have a word or two with Anthony Ireland, advise

You may well have others whom you would like to add. There is no great hurry and you may want to reflect on this.

Dear Antony,

PRIME MINISTER'S VISIT TO WASHINGTON:
WHITE HOUSE DINNER

You asked whether the Prime Minister had any particular suggestions to make for the guest list for the White House dinner during her visit to Washington, and you suggested a number of names.

I have had a word with the Prime Minister about this. She has given some preliminary thought to it but wants to reflect further. Names whom she would like considered from outside the Administration are:

Weinberger
Kissinger
Volcker
Greenspan
General Rogers
Annenbergs
Ann Armstrong
Senator Tower
General Abrahamson
David Rockefeller
William Simon
Sir Gordon White
Charlton Heston

In addition she wonders what your reaction would be to her suggesting:

Bud McFarlane
Richard Perle
Michael Caine
Mark and Diane Thatcher
Carol Thatcher

Could you let me know what you think? Perhaps we could have a word on the telephone.
