PRIME MINISTER

RESTRICTIVE PRACTICES IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

You wanted to see the detailed papers again over the weekend.

I have minuted out your support for Lord Young's proposals on the handling of the professions in the new Restrictive Trade Practices Legislation (the papers originally attached as Flag C and D to my minute below).

So I am now attaching just Carolyn Sinclair's summary note on Restrictive Practices in the Legal Profession which you studied last night (Flag A) and the detailed drafts of the three Green Papers (Flag B). I have deferred until Monday minuting out your reactions to the Lord Chancellor's proposals, in case you want to register any further thoughts when you have looked at the draft Green Papers.

Recd.

The proposals are bold but very well persuasively argued. Please go ahead indicating my full support
