

PRIME MINISTER

MEETING WITH OUR AMBASSADOR IN KUWAIT

Our Ambassador in Kuwait, Michael Weston, and his colleague, Larry Banks, are coming to see you at 1645 tomorrow accompanied by the Foreign Secretary. I have also suggested that they bring their families, who comprise:

- Mrs. Weston (also a member of the Diplomatic Service);
- daughter Antonia (20) by first marriage, who teaches dyslexic children;
- Mrs. Banks;
- Alison (20) at Birmingham University;
- Tim (19) at Blackheath College of Art;
- Aidan (14) at Stonyhurst.

We envisage a photograph of all of you outside the front door. You might then show them the Cabinet Room, before going upstairs for a talk. The meeting has to finish by 1710 to allow you to meet the Sultan of Brunei at 1715.

A fuller note by the FCO is in the folder.
