

Paul.

Lord President's office says re. minute on rating appeals.
He states two considerations to be injected into consideration

(a) no mention in minute of whether use of judicial review has been considered

(b) will be important in Party. Cutting off appeals when the number is likely to rise just because number of ^{values} inspectors is inadequate won't sound very compelling.

AT