Dear Charles,

HOUSTON ECONOMIC SUMMIT: AGENDA

I attach a copy of the Agenda for the Summit - allocation of subjects over the Summit sessions - which the US Sherpa handed out on Saturday. He made it clear that the first session, nominally ascribed to an Economic Overview and Trade, would provide the occasion for the leaders to set out what they regarded as the main business of the Summit. The Prime Minister's introductory speaking note is therefore still very apposite.

It is always possible that the US will change this scheme before we get to Houston.

I am sending a copy of this letter to Bernard Ingham and to the Private and Press Secretaries of the Foreign & Commonwealth Secretary and the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

*Yours only
Nigel*
