PRIME MINISTER

MEETING WITH SIGNOR ANDREOTTI

Signor Andreotti is very keen to see you before the first European Council in Rome on 27/28 October. Looking through the diary we have been able to identify only two possible dates after the Party Conference. They are the afternoon of Monday 15 October: and lunch on Saturday 20 October. We are trying to steer the Italians towards the first, so as not to interrupt your weekend. But would you, in case of necessity, be prepared to give him lunch at Chequers on Saturday 20 October please?

PRIME MINISTER'S MEETING WITH SIGNOR ANDREOTTI

Signor Vattani, the Italian Prime Minister's diplomatic adviser, has been in touch to arrange a meeting between Signor Andreotti and the Prime Minister before the European Council in Rome at the end of October. After a certain amount of negotiation, we have settled on a meeting at Chequers on Saturday 20 October. The Prime Minister wishes to keep it very small and in principle the Italians have agreed that only Vattani will accompany Andreotti, together with an interpreter.

I should be grateful if the department could deal with the detailed arrangements. The Italians intend to arrive at about 1245. I have suggested that they come into Northolt and helicopter down to Chequers for lunch at 1315, with talks continuing after lunch for as long as necessary.

MRS. PONSONBY

Signor Andreotti, as President of the European Community, wishes to come and see the Prime Minister before the first European Summit at the end of October. Could you please let me have a couple of days on which it would be possible? Ideally, the Prime Minister should be able to offer him a working lunch.
