

PRIME MINISTER

BILATERAL WITH THE CHANCELLOR: 19 APRIL

The only specific item I am aware you need to discuss with the Chancellor is the Chairmanship of the Doctors and Dentists Review Body - Andrew's note to Robin Butler of 14 April below records the latest position. The issue is whether it is worth establishing if Sir Graham Wilkins would be prepared to accept a one-year appointment.

But you may also want to take stock of the markets. This week they have been very quiet, and have responded calmly to the retail sales figures. Today's market report is enclosed. The next major event will be the trade figures, which come out next Wednesday. We have just received the export figures and the first indication of imports - see the note also enclosed.
