

PRIME MINISTER

The Foreign Office have been informed by Rome that Signor Craxi would like to speak to you on the telephone tomorrow to discuss INF. Mrs. Scrimgeour will be coming to see you at 1130 am. A suitable time might therefore be after lunch at 2.30 pm. We will commission briefing for this from the Foreign Office and Mr. Turnbull will listen in on the call.

Are you content for me to proceed with the arrangements?

Yes mb
