Dear John.

LT SETHIA: PRODUCTION OF DIARY

The Attorney General has seen your letter to Nigel Wicks of 30 April ^{at 11.00} and has examined the draft Certificate attached to it. He agrees that the Secretary of State would be justified in seeking, at least in the first instance, to prevent disclosure of the whole of the diary and its content with the draft Certificate.

I am sending copies of this letter to Nigel Wicks, Tony Galsworthy, Michael Stark and John Bailey.

Yours sincerely,
Michael Saunders.
