

mt

10 DOWNING STREET

Prime Minister

To note conclusions of discussions on chemists' remuneration. I had not realised that the principle raised by the post 1980 chemists (why should we have any overpayment deducted in respect of a period when we were not in business) is also applicable to other NHS contractors.

This strengthens the case for legislation, which is designed to put the law back to where all parties thought it to be

AT 20/11