ECONOMIC SUMMIT: TORONTO 19-20 JUNE 1988

Thank you for your letter of 17 December about invitations to the Prime Minister to speak in Toronto at the time of the Economic Summit.

The Prime Minister has already accepted in principle the invitation from Mr. Conrad Black, subject to confirmation early in the New Year. The plan is that she would speak at an early dinner on the second day of the Economic Summit before taking off for London.

Our High Commissioner should therefore decline the invitation on this occasion from the Canadian Club; we should not finally confirm her acceptance of the invitation from Mr. Black until we have more details of the Economic Summit programme.
