CHAIRMAN

May 20, 1988.

Mr. Charles Powell,
Private Secretary to the Prime Minister,
10 Downing Street,
LONDON SW1,
England.

Dear Charles:

Here is a copy of our invitation. Naturally the response has been rather enthusiastic.

I will be sending Alan Urwick a copy of the list of attenders and he will advise me how many people in Mrs. Thatcher's party will be coming to the dinner. I am assuming and hoping that you will be one. If any clarifications are needed, please contact me either directly or through Alan Urwick.

On a less official note, we will be in England for more than two months, starting on June 25, and are hoping to see you and Carla over the summer.

Best wishes. Please let me know if I may be helped in any way during your visit.

Yours sincerely,

Conrad
