Dear Derek,
ECONOMIC SUMMIT, TORONTO

1. I have drafted a letter which will come to the Private Secretary about dinner on the evening of the Prime Minister's arrival in Toronto. If it is decided that she will dine in her suite, I should be grateful for an indication of what she would like so that I can order it in advance. I enclose a selection of menus to give an idea of what is available. (I should be grateful if you would return them to me).

* 2. We have checked that the hairdresser in the King Edward Hotel has a set of heated rollers.

3. Finally, would you ensure that some British sparkling mineral water is brought out so that it can be used at the Prime Minister's Press Conference.

Yours sincerely

S M Waghorn
