From the Principal Private Secretary

16 September, 1988.

Dear Philip,

BROADCASTING WHITE PAPER

The Prime Minister has seen your letter to me of 14 September about the handling of this White Paper.

She has agreed that the White Paper should be tabled for discussion in Cabinet, and the Cabinet Office will be in touch with you about precise timings. She has noted that the Foreign Secretary and the Secretary of State for Education have a particular Departmental interest in the White Paper, and suggests that they should be invited to the meeting of Misc 128 which will consider the Broadcasting White Paper.

I am sending a copy of this letter to Trevor Woolley (Cabinet Office).
