

PRIME MINISTER'S VISIT TO NORTHWOOD

The Prime Minister visited headquarters C in C Fleet at Northwood today as part of the process of keeping in close touch with developments. She arrived at Northwood shortly before midday and went straight into the underground operations room.

She was briefed by C in C Fleet, Admiral Sir John Fieldhouse, plus his senior advisers. She was also accompanied by the Chief of the Defence Staff. No other Ministers were present.

Thereafter she had lunch at Admiralty House (this is separate from the base) with the C in C plus his senior officers and CDS. She returned direct to No 10 following the lunch.
