BOOKS ABOUT THE FALKLANDS

The Secretary of State has seen a copy of the submission of 19th July from Sir Robert Armstrong to the Prime Minister about Frederick Forsyth's proposed book on the Falklands crisis. He has noted in Paragraph 6 of that submission that the MOD has been approached by the Sunday Times Insight team for information for their book - the Secretary of State would like to know what assistance has been given to the Insight team, and what further assistance is now proposed e.g. by way of interviews with officials or officers.
