THE GOVERNOR

LR 248/7

(No 2)

No sooner had I arranged with Peter Jenkins in the Chancellor's Office that you should meet the Chancellor at 9.00 am Friday a deux, than John Kerr telephoned, having returned from No 11, to say that the Chancellor had asked him to arrange two meetings with you.

The Chancellor plans that the first should be with you alone tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon to discuss, primarily, interest rates and, possibly the Stock Exchange Reference, plus, of course, any other items that you wish to raise. The best time available seems to be 3.00 pm, for up to an hour.

The second meeting is to be ~~the~~ larger and is to discuss funding and interest rates. The time proposed for this is 9.15 am on Friday morning. Treasury participants are likely to include Bruce-Gardyne, Wass and Middleton plus possibly Burns, Monck and Professor Walters. You are invited to bring your own team.
