Dear Margaret,

This letter will be presented to you by the Hon. W.L. Young who has been appointed New Zealand High Commissioner in the United Kingdom.

Mr Young has for many years been one of my esteemed parliamentary and Cabinet colleagues. He has a wide knowledge of New Zealand affairs and also possesses the personal qualities required for the very important task of representing New Zealand in the United Kingdom.

I am confident that he will perform his duties with distinction and ask you and your colleagues to afford him all possible assistance as he embarks on his important mission.

Sincerely,
Margaret Thatcher
