Francis Pym

Personal

Spoke to Hall 5.30
Fri 3/12.
He will come back.

If you would prefer a drink at the end of the day, there seems to be no wholly free evening (excluding Fridays) until Monday 20 December, which is free, as are the following days until Christmas.

If you wished to offer lunch instead, Wednesday 8 December is possible - but squeezed by NSM at 2.45. Otherwise there is no free day until Tuesday 21 December, + thereafter till Christmas.

For a talk at the F.O. during normal working hours there are plenty of gaps (e.g. Monday 6 after Boob) and something might perhaps be most simply agreed by talking to his Secretary with chairs in front of us.

PERSONAL

Dear John,

We had a brief word the other day about the prospects for the world economy, and I would very much welcome the opportunity to go over the ground with you informally when you have a moment. We might either arrange half-an-hour in the office on a day when you are in any case likely to be at this end of town, or perhaps we could arrange a drink? If you agree, perhaps your office could get in touch with mine over the diaries.

Yours ever

Francis
