will bear in mind your warming.*

Dear Mr. Flesher,

Thank you very much for your letter dated 4th March 1983
which I read with much interest.

My letter to the Prime Minister was written not so much because I am concerned with Leyland wishing to be competitive, but rather due to the fact that many of the people who work with me have indicated that they will be voting against the Conservative Party at the next General Election.

Yours sincerely,

Ray Swaby
