

10 DOWNING STREET

Prime Minister

You are seeing Mr Fowler for a talk on 28 June. You should use the meeting with Mr Griffiths to accumulate ammunition. Mr Willett's note provides plenty of questions.

There are currently 2,200

DHSS staff administering the NHS. Griffiths believes that by having many off into the General Managers line of command and by cutting back extent to which Ministers are answerable for details questions, this could be reduced to 300.
You could ask him how.

Would you like Mr Willett to attend?
