10 DOWNING STREET

THE PRIME MINISTER

31 August, 1984.

My dear High Commissioner,

Thank you and your wife so much for the most enjoyable dinner party last night. It was a great pleasure to be able to spend a relaxed evening in such good company: it helped me forget for a time my disappointment at having to postpone my visit. I also found our talk after dinner particularly interesting.

Do please tell Prime Minister Lee how sad I am to miss the opportunity for a really good talk with him: there is so much happening on which I want to hear his views.

Yours sincerely,

Margaret Thatcher
