Madam Prime Minister,

I am writing to thank you for your kind letter of the 8th August and for having decided to allocate another £ 20,000 for additional awards to Mauritian students in 1984/85.

I am also very pleased that if additional funds become available in 1985/86, you will make every effort to accommodate one or two more of our laureate scholars. It is my hope that this will materialise.

My wife and I enjoyed our stay in U.K. and shall treasure the happy moments spent at 10, Downing Street.

I am confident that my visit, on your kind invitation, has strengthened our traditionally close ties.

With warmest regards.

Yours sincerely,

Anerood Jugnauth
Prime Minister

The Rt Hon Mrs Margaret Thatcher, MP
