Dear Prime Minister,

I am deeply appreciative of your warm message of congratulations and good wishes.

Thank you for your kind invitation. I should very much like to have an opportunity to exchange views with you on matters which are of concern to both our countries and to the international community. I hope I can visit the United Kingdom during the course of 1985. There are so many countries to be visited and there is so much work to be done at home!

(Rajiv Gandhi)

The Rt. Hon'ble Margaret Thatcher,
Prime Minister of United Kingdom,
London.
