From the Private Secretary

11 March 1985

*Dear Helen*Capital Tax Reliefs for Heritage Property

The Prime Minister has seen the Financial Secretary's minute of 1 March. She has approved the proposal for a transfer from the Treasury to the Board of Inland Revenue of certain statutory responsibilities for capital tax reliefs on heritage properties.

I am copying this letter to John Ballard (Department of the Environment), Paul Thomas (Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster's Office) and Richard Hatfield (Cabinet Office).

*YoursMark Addison*Mark Addison

Ms Helen Goodman
HM Treasury.
