Dear Prime Minister.

I thought you might like to hear of the reception the British delegation received in Sofia earlier this week when I signed the NOx protocol.

To the annoyance of some of our friends in Europe the vast majority of delegations sought us out to discuss environmental matters. Many asked to come over here to discuss a range of thoughts and policies.

Without doubt you and Nick's recent speeches on the environment have made an enormous impact in both East and West Europe. We were listened to with very great care as a result and our presence was much appreciated.

All good news!

Yours

Malcolm
