Possible call by Sir I Sutherland on the Prime Minister

Sir I Sutherland, our Ambassador at Moscow, is at present in London on leave before returning to Moscow on 27 October. He will be calling on the Foreign and Commonwealth Secretary before he returns to discuss both our bilateral relations with the Soviet Union and East/West relations generally.

In view of the attention the Prime Minister has given these questions and her recent discussions in Washington, it would be particularly valuable for Sir I Sutherland if the Prime Minister were able to see him before he returns to Moscow, as she did before he took up his post last year. Sir Iain will be in London on 20/21 October and 24/25 October.
