From the Private Secretary

2 July 1984

I enclose a list of Soviet Jews, described as "refuseniks", handed to the Prime Minister in her constituency on 29 June. The Prime Minister had asked that this be given to the Foreign Secretary before leaving for Moscow. Unfortunately, it came to hand only today. Could you please telegraph it to Moscow for such action as can be taken.

The Rt. Hon. Mrs. Thatcher;

Dear Mrs. Thatcher,

Enclosed is the List of refuseniks that you kindly consented to give to Sir Geoffrey Howe.

I should be most grateful if you could let me know if the misdemeanours of the Soviets with regard to Jewish Citizens has been discussed at Hamburg, and what is the outcome.

Thank you for your concern.

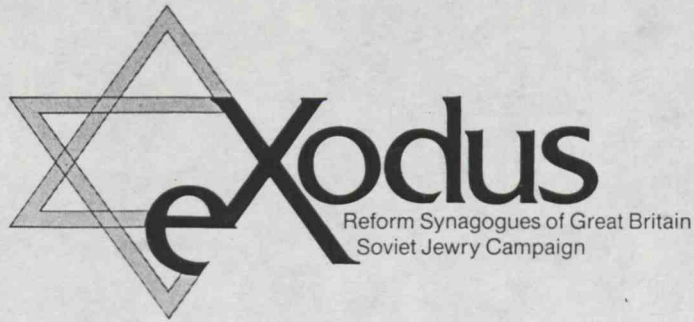

Yours sincerely,

Linda Isaacs
